From the heart of Switzerland

A Swiss affair from start to finish: fine natural wood grown and cultivated for decades. Using sustainable forestry practices, select trees are felled, carefully sawn and dried. Once this wood has been stored in climate-controlled conditions, it is then further processed in the heart of Switzerland. The experienced joiner selects the perfect pieces to craft your natural wooden bed with the utmost love and care. This is followed by a natural oil treatment to give your unique piece its silky gloss finish.

An oasis of calm

The bedroom is a place of restorative peace and deep relaxation. It is your own personal retreat, where you can be sure to sleep well. The aurelia artisan bed is carefully crafted by rovia to integrate harmoniously into your bedroom concept. When it comes to getting a good night's sleep, this bed is a star performer.

Every piece of natural wood tells its own wonderful story. No two stories are the same, so your carefully crafted aurelia bed is always a unique piece. There are six exquisite types of natural wood to choose from. You can also select matching bed feet, either in the lower design height or the slightly raised comfort height. Round off your chosen configuration with an elegant headboard, and choose from our two bedside table designs.
